

TYPE	SITE NAME	ARCHITECT / DESIGNER / ARTIST	YEAR	DESCRIPTION	ADDRESS / LOCATION
CULTURAL FACILITIES
	Boston Fire Department - Engine Company 37, Ladder 26	N/A	1933	One of the busiest fire stations in Boston, occupied by the District Fire Chief of District 5 as well as the Engine 37 & Ladder 26 response teams.	560 Huntington Avenue
	Christian Science Center	I. M. Pei, Solon Spencer Beman, Charles Brigham	1893	Mother church of Church of Christ, Scientist	210 Massachusetts Avenue
	Christian Science Center, Colonnade Building	I. M. Pei & Partners	1972	The Colonnade Building houses Northeastern University's College of Professional Studies.	101 Belvidere Street
	Christian Science Center, Original First Church of Christ, Scientist	Franklin Welch	1894	Christian Science Church	210 Massachusetts Avenue
	Christian Science Center, Mother Church Extension	Charles Brigham, Charles Coveney, and Solon Berman	1906	The Mother Church Extension is a cathedral-scale, Byzantine and Renaissance Revival-style church, contiguous at its east end with the much smaller Original Mother Church of 1894. The extension constituted the second and largest phase of the church's development.	210 Massachusetts Avenue
	Christian Science Center, Reflection Hall	I. M. Pei & Partners	1972	Auditorium used for Sunday school.	210 Massachusetts Avenue
	Christian Science Center Tower	I. M. Pei & Partners	1972	Office building	177 Huntington Avenue
	Fenway Park	James McLaughlin	1912	Fenway Park, Home of the Boston Red Sox baseball team, is the oldest ballpark in the MLB and has acted as a center stage for some of baseball's most beloved players including; Babe Ruth, Ted Williams, and David Ortiz.	4 Yawkey Way
	Fenway Studios	Parker & Thomas	1906	A limited-equity artists studio building built after the Harcourt fire of 1904, which destroyed many artists live-work spaces.	30 Ipswich Street
	Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral of New England	Hachadoor Demoorjian	1923	Greek Orthodox church and seat of the Greek Orthodox Bishop of Boston	514 Parker Street
	Holy Trinity Orthodox Cathedral	Constantine Pertzoff	1952	Eastern Orthodox church founded by immigrants from the Russian and Austro-Hungarian empires	165 Park Drive
	Horticultural Hall	Wheelwright & Haven	1903	The offices of Boston Magazine, Small Army, and The New England Conservatory of Music.	300 Massachusetts Avenue
	Huntington Theatre	J. Williams Beal and Sons	1923	890-seat Huntington Avenue theater and two adjoining building, sold by Boston University in 2015 after 62 years of ownership; 1982-2015 home of the Huntington Theatre Company	264 Huntington Avenue
	Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum	Willard T. Sears, addition by Renzo Piano	1902, 2012	Museum of international art featuring the private art collection of Isabella Stewart Gardner in her former home, originally known as Fenway Court, expanded 2012 with more room for visitor services, concerts, special exhibitions, education and landscape programs.	25 Evans Way
	House of Blues Boston	Cambridge 7 Associates	2009	Part of a chain of concert venues spanning across the country. Shows range from indie bands to pop performances, spanning all genres and age groups. Originally founded in the 1990s and located in Harvard Square. Cambridge.	15 Lansdowne Street
	Hynes Convention Center	Kallmann McKinnell & Wood	1988	Built as the War Memorial as a replacement to the earlier Mechanics Hall	900 Boylston Street
	Landmark Center / Regal Cinemas	Nimmons, Carr and Wright; ren: Bruner/Cott & Associates	1928	Historic, 952,000 sq. ft. limestone and brick art deco building with 200-foot-tall tower erected by Sears, Roebuck and Company. In 2000 converted to a mixed-used office, retail and entertainment hub including a 13-screen movie theater, restaurants and a 1,700-space parking garage.	401 Park Drive
	Matthews Arena	Unknown, Renovated: Miller, Dyer, Spears	1910, 2009	Matthews Arena is the oldest continually used indoor hockey arena in the world opening in 1910 it was the original home of the Boston Bruins, Boston Celtics, and New England Whalers before being bought by Northeastern University in 1979, now the Arena is primarily used by local colleges.	238-262 St Botolph Street
	Massachusetts Historical Society	Edmund Wheelwright	1899	Historical Society of Massachusetts with a focus on Early America specifically around New England	1154 Boylston Street
	Museum of Fine Arts	Guy Lowell, additions by Guy Lowell, Hugh Stubbins, I.M. Pei & Partners, Foster + Partners	1909, 1928, 1970, 1981, 2010	Museum of contemporary and modern art, one of the most comprehensive collections in the Americas with a collection of more than 450,000 works of art dating from ancient Egypt to the present.	465 Huntington Avenue
	Museum of Fine Arts, Forsyth Institute Building	Edward T. P. Graham	1914	Administrative offices of the Museum of Fine Arts in a former dental health and progressing dental research institute that moved to Cambridge	140 Fenway
	Prudential Center	The Luckman Partnership, Childs Bertman Tsekares Inc.	1964, 1973, 2002	The Prudential Center when built was the largest skyscraper in the world outside of New York City the office tower became the beacon of a new Boston. The complex consists of the original 52 story office tower, a 23 acres shopping center spanning between Huntington Ave and Beacon Street	800 Boylston Street
	St. Clement's Archdiocesan Eucharistic Shrine		1935	Gothic style Roman Catholic Shrine that has early renaissance influences	1105 Boylston Street
	Symphony Hall	McKim, Mead & White. Acoustics by Wallace Clement Sabine	1900	Home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra with amazing acoustics, the first of its kind to be designed using scientific principles, modeled after Gewandhaus Concert Hall in Leipzig, Germany.	301 Massachusetts Avenue
	YMCA of Greater Boston	Shepley, Rutan and Coolidge	1911	First American chapter of the YMCA. This brick classical building holds youth and teen programs, adult programs, and family program. The YMCA has a pool, holds group exercise classes, and has a full service gym.	316 Huntington Avenue
ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS
	Berklee College of Music	N/A	1945	Founded by Lawrence Berk. The first and largest independent college of contemporary music in the world.	1140 Boylston Street
	Berklee College of Music, Dormitory	William Rawn Associates	2014	Student housing for music students	160 Massachusetts Avenue

Boston Arts Academy	N/A		The Boston Arts Academy is Boston's first and only high school for the visual and performing arts and is a partnership between Boston Public Schools and the ProArts Consortium. The building was formerly owned by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.	174 Ipswich Street
Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Main Building (Seully Hall, The Zack Box and Concert Room)	Wheelright and Haven	1901	Italianate stone building. Founded 1867 by Julius Eichberg, the school offers a world-renowned program in classical music and the performing arts. Boston Conservatory merged with Berklee College of Music in 2016.	8 Fenway
Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Main Stage and Studio 401	Handel Architects	2010	Boston Conservatory performing arts building with studios, practice spaces, a theater, rehearsal space, offices, and classrooms	31 Hemenway Street
Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Ipswich Studios	Handel Architects	2014	The studio building expands the limited historic campus at 8 The Fenway to accommodate students in the areas of classical music performance, education and composition as well as dance and musical theater.	132 Ipswich Street
Boston Latin School	James E. McLaughlin	1922	Boston Public Schools middle and high school, a public "magnet"/"exam school" established 1635 by John Winthrop during the settlement of Boston. Considered both the first public school and oldest existing public school in the U.S.	78 Avenue Louis Pasteur
Boston University			Founded by Jacob Sleeper, Lee Claflin, Isaac Rich in 1839	1 Silber Way
Boston University - Hayden Memorial Building	Cram and Ferguson/Coolidge, Shepley, Bulfinch and Abbott	1939	Hayden Memorial houses the School of Management, which, due to a movement in the early 1900s which brought more students to the college, is considered to have sustained Boston University through the Great Depression.	685 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - Marsh Chapel	Cram and Ferguson/Coolidge, Shepley, Bulfinch and Abbott	1948	Marsh Chapel forms the physical and spiritual center of Boston University's Charles River Campus. Neo-Gothic style is intended to "reinforce the sense of a medieval scholastic community."	735 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - Morse Auditorium	C.H. Blackhall	1903	Built as Temple Adeth Israel when the area was expected to be a residential neighborhood. Now referred to as Morse Auditorium, the building is used for large lectures and events.	602 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - Mugar Memorial Library	Sert, Jackson and Gourley	1966	The intellectual center of campus, a consolidation of 9 scattered libraries from all reaches of the campus.	771 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - Warren Towers	Von Storch and Burkavage	1965	Warren Towers are Dormitories at Boston University, named for The Warren Family. William Fairfield Warren founded the First Methodist Church on Bowdoin Street and was named the first president of the University.	700 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - School of Law and Law Library	Sert, Jackson and Gourley	1961	Massive Brutalist tower. Prior to 1980 housed the School of Education as well as the school of Law, now houses the School of Law and the Law Library.	765 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - School of Public Communication	Richmond and Goldberg	1912, remodeled in 1956	The first School to offer a degree in Public Relations. Contains a broadcasting and film studio, as well as a collection of over 180,000 newspaper clippings dating back to the 19th century donated by the Hearst Corporation.	640 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - Science Center	Remodeled by John Carl Warnecke	1983	A building initially used as an automobile related commercial space that was converted into one of the University's Science buildings. Contains a large atrium space displaying the school's colors via red staircases and white plaster walls.	590 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University - The Castle	Chapman and Frazer with George Bosworth	1905	Former residence of a prominent Boston businessman, converted into an Administration building for Boston University.	225 Bay State Road
Emmanuel College		1919	Coeducational Roman Catholic liberal arts college founded by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur as the first women's Catholic college in New England.	400 Fenway
Emmanuel College, Administration Building, Chapel	Maginnis and Walsh	1916	The historic heart of the campus features the historic Chapel, classrooms, the Art Department, faculty and staff offices, meeting space, the mailroom and the Muddy River Café.	400 Fenway
Harvard Medical School	John Warren	1906	Graduate medical school of Harvard University, established in 1782 at Harvard Hall in Cambridge. The 5 iconic marble-faced buildings of the quadrangle continue to be used as classrooms, labs and administrative offices	25 Shattuck St
Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health	Harvard	1913		677 Huntington Avenue
Massachusetts College of Art and Design	N/A	1983	College specializing in art and design founded in 1873 by the Massachusetts Board of Education. One of the oldest art schools in the U.S. and the first art college in the United States to grant an artistic degree. In 1983 MassArt was relocated to its current location, the campus of the former Boston State College.	621 Huntington Avenue
Massachusetts College of Art and Design, Treehouse	ADD Inc.	2012	Residential Housing with 493 beds on 21 stories for MassArt students.	578 Huntington Avenue
Massachusetts Historical Society	Edmund M. Wheelwright	1899	The Massachusetts Historical Society is a major historical archive specializing in early American, Massachusetts, and New England history.	1154 Boylston Street
MCPHS University, John Richard Fennell Building and Theodore L. Iorio Research Center		1996	University specializing in pharmacy, health and science founded in 1823 by 14 Boston pharmacists.	179 Longwood Avenue
New England Conservatory			College of classical and jazz music founded 1867 by Eben Tourjée	290 Huntington Avenue
New England Conservatory of Music, Jordan Hall	Edmund M. Wheelwright of Wheelwright and Haven	1903	Acoustically superb 1,019-seat concert hall for NEC, the classical and jazz school offering programs in music, dance and musical theater founded since 1867. The majority of concerts are offered free of charge.	290 Huntington Avenue
New England School of Photography (NESOP)		1972	Two-year professional photography program founded in 1968 by Academy-Award nominated cinematographer John H. Carruthers. Moved to Kenmore Square location from 739 Boylston Street in 1972.	537 Commonwealth Avenue
Northeastern University			Large private research university founded 1898 by the YMCA with undergrad. and grad. programs in engineering, architecture and design, business, computer studies, science, professional studies, law, and health sciences	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University			Private research university in the heart of Boston	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Dodge Hall	Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson and Abbott	1952	Brick academic building located centrally on Huntington Ave	360 Huntington Avenue

Northeastern University, Egan Engineering/Science Research Center (EC) & Raytheon Amphitheater		1996	Contemporary building on campus that houses the school of engineering / research facilities	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Ell Hall		1947	Brick academic building that is at the center of the Krentzman Quadrangle	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Fenway Center	Rotch & Tiden	1892	Existing church that was transformed into a performance center	77 St Stephens Street
Northeastern University, Forsyth Building			Painted brick building that houses classrooms and administration	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Hayden Hall			Brick building that houses classrooms and administration, adjoined to Richards Hall	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Holmes Hall			Brick academic building	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, International Village	Kyu Sung Woo Architects	2009	Contemporary NU Residence Hall and cafeteria that creates an engaging environment, that houses the first year honors students.	1175 Tremont Street
Northeastern University, Marino Center		1996	Glass fitness center that overlooks Huntington Ave. Also located within are some cafés, a basketball court, and a pool.	359-369 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Mary Gass Robinson & Edward L Hurtig Hall			Brick academic building
Northeastern University, Matthews Arena	Unknown, Renovated: Miller, Dyer, Spears	1910, 2009	Matthews Arena is the oldest continually used indoor hockey arena in the world opening in 1910 it was the original home of the Boston Bruins, Boston Celtics, and New England Whalers before being bought by Northeastern University in 1979, now the Arena is primarily used by local colleges.	238-262 St Botolph Street
Northeastern University, Mugar Life Sciences Bldg			Brick building that houses the School of Health Sciences	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Nightingale Hall			Brick building that houses the School of Psychology	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Richards Hall	Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson and Abbott	1938	Brick academic building located on the Krentzman Quad	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Rubenstein Hall			NU residence hall located right across the street from the Museum of Fine Arts	464 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Shillman Hall		1995	Curved brick facade the houses classroom facilities	115 Forsyth Street
Northeastern University, Smith Hall			Brick NU residence hall	129 Hemenway Street
Northeastern University, Snell Engineering Center			Brick academic building that houses the School of Engineering	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University's, Snell Library	The Architect's Collaborative		Brutalist library building. The interior was renovated in 2013 and encompassing technology with 3D printers and breakout spaces for collaboration.	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Speare Hall			NU Residence Hall with a small quad in front, where many students play wiffle ball and other sports.	10 Speare Place
Northeastern University, ASA S. Knowles Center		1982	Brick building that houses the School of Law and a law library, located centrally on Huntington Ave, with some student dining services within.	360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University, Stetson East and West			Brick NU Residence Hall that has dining services within.	11 Speare Place
Northeastern University, West Village	William Rawn Associates	1999	Eight brick contemporary NU Residence Halls that make up a small complex, the create a central quad.	500 Parker Street
Northeastern University, White Hall			Brick NU Residence Hall that has a Qdoba on the first floor.	21 Forsyth Street
Northeastern University, Willis Hall		1980s	Brick NU Residence Hall	50 Leon Street
D'Amore - McKim School of Business			School of Management that includes offices, event space, and classrooms	300 Fenway
School of the Museum of the Fine Arts	Guy Lowell, Graham Gund Architects	1927, 1987	College specializing in the fine arts	230 Fenway
Simmons College	Peabody and Stearns	1904	Founded in 1904 with a bequest by John Simmons as a women's college. Neoclassical brick building with a cafeteria and administrative offices.	300 Fenway
Simmons College, Beatly Library and Lefavour Hall		1961	Contemporary full service library building with classrooms, study spaces, event spaces, and group meeting areas.	300 Fenway
Simmons College, Park Science Center		1972	Contemporary science center with a variety of labs and classrooms	300 Fenway
Simmons College, Residential Campus		1905-53	Residence halls, fitness center, and gymnasium located around a central quad.	300 Fenway
Wentworth Institute of Technology, Wentworth Hall	Peabody and Stearns	1910	Classical Revival brick building with classrooms, offices, and admissions. Founded 1904 by Arioeh Wentworth.	550 Huntington Avenue
Wentworth, Beatty Hall		1967, 2012	Brutalist building, with a modern addition, that houses classrooms, Campus Bookstore, Alumni Library, Flanagan Campus Center, and the dining hall	8 Parker Street
Wentworth, 525 Huntington Ave	Beacon Architectural Associates	2014	Contemporary new dormitory building for upperclassman students of Wentworth Institute of Technology	525 Huntington Avenue
Wentworth, Annex Building			Brick building that houses the College of Architecture, Design and Construction Management, with classrooms, studios, offices, and an auditorium	550 Parker Street
Wentworth, Ira Allen Building	Perkins & Will	2012	Recently renovated center for sciences and biomedical engineering, with high tech laboratory facilities	Parker Street
Whelock College		1888	Founded in 1888 by Lucy Wheelock, the college specializes in education, social work, and family studies.	200 Riverway
Whelock College, Activities West/East Building	Carl Koch and Associates	1967	Contemporary addition to a traditional brick style building that houses offices, classrooms, a toy library for the education department's use.	180 Riverway
Whelock College, Administration Building		1900	Post modern brick building that houses academic affairs, admissions, and the President's office.	200 Riverway
Whelock College, Campus Center / Student Residence	William Rawn Associates	2008	Contemporary building clad in metal paneling and glass, that houses a dining hall, residence hall, student service center, and student leadership and campus programs.	150 Riverway
Whelock College, Classroom building		1941	Brick building that houses classrooms, art studios, and a counseling center.	25 Pilgrim Road
Whelock College, Library		1915	Brick classical building, that houses the library, archives, and a writing center.	132 Riverway
Whelock College, Longwood House		1914	Residence hall, faculty, and public safety offices.	154 Riverway
Whelock College, Peabody Hall	Guy Lowell	1905	Athletics department and student residences are housed in this brick building.	210 Riverway
Whelock College, Pilgrim House		1911	Brick student residence hall.	39-41 Pilgrim Road
Whelock College, Riverway Housing		1915	Brick student residence hall.	162 Riverway
Whelock Family Theater			Brick contemporary building that houses Wheelock's theater and art gallery.	200 Riverway

PUBLIC ART
Back Bay Fens, Rose Garden: Desconsol	Josep Llimona (1864-1934)	1986	Carrara marble life size 26 x 30 x 31.5in. A replica of the 1907 original work by Llimona at the National Art Museum of Catalonia, Barcelona. It is a gift from the City of Barcelona.	Back Bay Fens, 73 Park Drive
Back Bay Fens: Japanese Temple Bell	Tanaka Gozaemon under the supervision of Suzuki Magoemon	Cast in 1675, installed 1953	Bronze bell located in the Back Bay Fens. Taken to the US in WWII, the US State Department contacted Sendai in 1953 to arrange the bell's return, a group called the Temple Believers offered to allow the bell to remain in Boston as a gift in the spirit of peace and friendship.	Back Bay Fens, near 73 Park Drive
Back Bay Fens: John Boyle O'Reilly Memorial	Daniel Chester French (1850-1931)	1896	A multi-figured bronze statue located near Fenway. John Boyle O'Reilly was born in Ireland in 1844 and died in Boston in 1890. being sentenced to 20 years hard labor for his involvement in the Fenian movement in Ireland; he subsequently escaped from the penal colony and came to New Bedford, Massachusetts	Corner of Fenway and Boylston Street
Back Bay Fens: Johnson Gates or Johnson Memorial Fountain and Gate	Guy Lowell (1870-1927)	1902 (ded. 1903)	2 parts. Each pier: approx. 20 x 5 x 5'. Two large square marble piers each adorned with marble columns on the corners. On each side, the piers feature bronze lion head fountain spouts with square marble basins below. Marble balustrades and two marble benches are installed on the outer edge of each pier.	Back Bay Fens, Westland Avenue and Hemingway
Back Bay Fens: War Memorials	John Francis Paramino (1888-1950) and Tito Cascieri	1949	Bronze & granite memorials commemorating those who died during World War II, the Vietnam War, and the Korean War	Fenway, at 73 Park Drive
Boston Arts Academy: Dream Catching	Wen-ti Tsen	2004	Boston Arts Academy facade sculpture. Suite of 18 bronze plate figures and set of mirror-finished, stainless steel plates with images of early cultures are sequenced across 3 sides of the 5-story building, against the original yellow brick and window patterns	174 Ipswich Street
Boston University: Counterpoint	Russell Jacques (b. 1943)	1983	On the bank of the Charles River, describes interplay of lyrical and energetic rhythms	Storrow Drive, behind Marsh Chapel
Boston University: Explosion	Sergio Castillo (1925-2010)	1987	Stainless steel sculpture	630 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University: Fountain	Edward Monti	1976	Currently displaced-Construction; 15 ft. granite water feature	630 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University: Free at Last	Sergio Castillo (1925-2010)	1975	Cor-ten steel and bronze statue located at BU's Marsh Plaza that references Martin Luther King's famous words reminiscent of a flock of birds rising to the sky.	735 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston University: Untitled	Gregg Lefevre (b. 1946)	1974	Epoxy over cement 8ft. sculpture	140 Bay State Road
Fenway Park: Carl Yastrzemski	Antonio Tobias Mendez (b.1963)	2013	Life-size bronze portrait of Carl Yaz Yastrzemski played his entire 23-year baseball career with the Boston Red Sox (1961-1983).	Van Ness Street
Fenway Park: Teammates	Antonio Tobias Mendez (b. 1963)	2010	Life-size bronze portraits of Sox players Ted Williams, Bobby Doer, Johnny Pesky and Dom DiMaggio	Van Ness Street and Ipswich Street
Fenway Park: Ted Williams	Franc Talarico	2010	Life-size bronze portrait of Ted Williams, acclaimed as "the greatest hitter who ever lived."	Van Ness Street, Gate B
Forsyth Park: John Endecott (c. 1588 - 1615)	Carl Paul Jennewein (1890-1978)	1937	Over lifesize stone portrait of John Endecott (c. 1588 - 1665) who served as British colonial governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony 1644-45, 1649-50, 1651-54, and 1655-64 and was deputy governor in 1641-44, 1650-51, and 1654-55.	Forsyth Park
Harry Ellis Dickson Park: Tent Bay	Taylor McClain	1991	Aluminum sculpture located at Harry Ellis Dickinson Park celebrates the spiral—the spiral arm of the Milky Way that we inhabit	New Edgerly Road
Kenmore Square: Citgo Sign	The Citgo Company	1940	Measuring 3600 sq. ft., this famous Boston landmark is used to advertise the Citgo Gas company. It was created by the Citgo company itself and is made of LED lights.	660 Beacon Street
MassArt: All Time Belongs to God		Unknown	Wind activated welded steel sculpture measuring 19 x 6 x 6 ft. that's located on Mass Art's campus	621 Huntington Avenue
MassArt: Art Wall	James Carpenter (b. 1948)	2006	12 x 45ft. double screen of stainless steel mesh with vision related words enlivened by a moiré effect	91 Palace Road
MassArt: The Kiss	David Bakalar	1992	4.5ft. tall, abstract stone sculpture located in MassArt's outdoor cafe area	621 Huntington Avenue
MFA School: Rhinoceros	Katherine Lord Lane Weems	1987	Polyester resin, bronze powdered life-size rhinoceros statue. A graduate of the Boston Museum School, Weems animal sculptures in Boston include a school of dolphins at the Aquarium, a pair of rhinos at Harvard, and a dog on the Esplanade.	230 Fenway
MFA: Appeal to the Great Spirit	Cyrus Dallin (1861-1944)	1909	The final of a series of 4 figurative sculptures representing The Epic of the Indian. The sculpture won a gold medal for Dallin at the 1909 Paris Salon. Dallin taught at what is now Massachusetts College of Art and Design for 40 years.	465 Huntington Avenue, Entrance
MFA: Night and Day	Antonio Lopez Garcia (b. 1936)	2008	Two monumental bronze baby heads, 96 in. tall, 77 in. wide, 95 in. deep each flanking the Fenway entrance of the museum.	MFA, Fenway Entrance
MFA: Standing Figure	Willem de Kooning (1904-1997)	1984	10 ft. tall abstract bronze sculpture to the left of the West Wing entrance	MFA, 71 Museum Road
MFA: Taihu Rock	Naturally formed stone, Qing Dynasty	Late 19th - early 20th century	Made from naturally porous Taihu limestone, the stone measures 70 x 97 in.	MFA, Front Lawn, 465 Huntington Avenue
MFA: Untitled	Joel Shapiro (b. 1941)	1997	126 x 258 x 108 in. abstract bronze sculpture	MFA, Front Lawn, 465 Huntington Avenue
MFA: Walking Man	Jonathan Borofsky (b. 1942)	2000	18ft. H x 34ft. W fiberglass epoxy enamel sculpture atop stainless steel beam, located above the entrance to the MFA's surface guest parking lot in front of the West Wing	MFA, 71 Museum Road
Northeastern Public Art Initiative	Various artists	2014- present	Northeastern University's Public Art Initiative brings muralists and other artists to its campus for installation on building facades and other highly visible sites on campus.	Northeastern University, 360 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University: Taking A Leap	Jef Aérosol (b. 1957)	2015	Large-scale stencil on the Huntington Avenue side of Cargill Hall	Northeastern University, 420 Huntington Avenue
Northeastern University: In Person	Sophia Ainslie	2014	Combined X-rays, territorial mappings, and sketches of places	Northeastern University, Ryder Hall 11 Leon Street
Northeastern University: 100 Years Of Solitude	Daniel Angulu	2014	Large scale geometric abstract mural on a retaining wall inspired by the famous novel by the same title of Columbian author Gabriel Garcia Marquez	Northeastern University, Columbus Parking Garage Overpass
Northeastern University: Ars et Scientia	Miles "Mac" MacGregor (b. 1980)	2014	Influences of graffiti and the artist's Chicano and Mexican cultural heritage and family are representing the mural's arts and science theme	Northeastern University, Meserve Hall, 44 Leon Street

Northeastern University: Comanda	Shepard Fairey (b. 1970)	2009	240 sf wheat paste & graphic art mural featuring the artist's wife in an homage to graffiti art. One of several public art projects at NEYU's International Village residence hall.	Northeastern University, International Village Lobby 1135 Columbus Avenue
Northeastern University: Drawing As Process	Jeffrey Hull	2015	Installation of 28 digital prints made from original drawings mounted on the 1st floor exterior windows of a NEU building at 406 Parker Street.	Northeastern University, 406 Parker Street
Northeastern University: Happenstance	Martin Berinstein	2016	Photography montage located on Northeastern's campus	Northeastern University, 435 Parker Street
Northeasters University Sculpture Park	Various sculptors		The sculpture park is comprised of a collection of abstract and figurative bronze and metal sculptures by primarily local artists.	at Curry Student Center
Northeastern University: Adam	David Bakalar		6 ft. stainless steel sculpture	Northeastern University
Northeastern University: Homage to Galileo	David Bakalar		9 ft. stainless steel sculpture located between Northeastern dormitories	Northeastern University, Bills Court
Northeastern University: A Quantum Figure	David Bakalar	1971	7 ft. stainless steel sculpture located between Northeastern's dorms.	Northeastern University, Bills Court
Northeastern University: Arpus	Rafael Consuegra (b.1942)	1995	8 ft. powder-coated metal sculpture	Northeastern University Sculpture Park
Northeastern University: Reclining Figure	Blake Edwards	1997	Bronze sculpture	Northeastern University Sculpture Park
Northeastern University: Bird in Flight	Leonardo Niemmann	1997	Stainless steel sculpture	Northeastern University Sculpture Park
Northeastern University: The Orb	Kathleen Van Deusen and and Skylight Studios	1996	Abstract sculpture comprised of a textured bronze sphere with a bronze footing situated in a small water basin	Northeastern University Sculpture Park
Northeastern University: Veterans Memorial	Mark Roehrl and Mo Zell	2006	Commemorates NEU students and alumni who have given their lives in service.	Northeastern University, 115 Forsyth St.
Northeastern University: Cy Young	Robert Shure (b. 1948)	1993	Life-size bronze sculpture of the legendary pitcher for the Boston Americans (later renamed the Red Sox)	Northeastern University
Punter's Pub: Transmission	Todd Mazer	2015	Abstract geometric mural painted on the side wall of Punter's Pub	450 Huntington Avenue
Symphony Community Park: First Chair	Jacob Kulin	2016	Abstract, 16' high kor-ten steel sculpture references a chairs' shape. Sweeping curves both reflect the musical instruments in reference to the park and nearby Symphony Hall.	Corner of Burbank Street and Ederly Road
Wentworth: Kinetic Fish Sculpture	John A. Russell	1988	25ft. tall, kinetic metal sculpture is the focal point of a small pocket park fronting a Wentworth dormitory building.	555 Huntington Avenue
Wentworth: Leopard	Robert Shure (b. 1948) and Skylight Studios	2003	Bronze sculpture portraying Wentworth's mascot, the leopard	Wentworth, 610 Huntington Avenue
Wentworth, Class of 1988	G. Welch	1988	Abstract geometric sculpture in the Wentworth Quad given by the Class of 1988.	Wentworth Quad, 610 Huntington Ave.
Wheelock College: Life Force IV	David Bakalar	2009	7ft. granite sculpture, the three Wheelock sculptures address the way visual images can embody scientific concepts	Wheelock College, 43 Hawes Street
Wheelock College: The Dance	David Bakalar	2009	9 ft. tall, abstract, stainless steel sculpture	Wheelock Family Theater
Wheelock College: We!	David Bakalar	2009	7 ft. tall, abstract aluminum sculpture	Wheelock College, Campus Center

PARKS & OPEN SPACE

Back Bay Fens (Original)	Fredrick Law Olmstead	1900	Large Park System that is a part of the larger Emerald Necklace following the Muddy River through the Fenway neighborhood to the Charles River
Back Bay Fens, Kelleher Rose Garden	Arthur Shurcliff	~1920s- 1930s	The Rose Garden features over ten classes and 200 varieties of roses, including climbing roses, miniature roses, shrub roses and floribunda roses, complemented by a large fountain and the Josep Llimona's symbolist sculpture Desconsol .
Back Bay Fens, Riverway 1	Fredrick Law Olmstead	1890	Link in the Emerald Necklace, the first of the parcels established as the Back Bay Fens
Back Bay Fens, Victory Garden	Community/Government	1941	Established during World War II to support the war effort, Victory Garden is an urban oasis that continues to be operated by local residents who maintain the fruits, vegetables, and flowers of 500 plots.
BU Beach	Unknown	~1974	Boston University park sloping down towards the river.	Bay State Road, Boston
BU Grounds East	Unknown	~1974	Central campus for BU East, open green space.
BU Grounds South	Unknown	~1974	Central campus for BU South, open green space.
Charles River Esplanade	Arthur Shurcliff	1936	State-managed park along the Charles River, part of the Charles River Reservation	Charles River banks
Christian Science Center Plaza	I. M. Pei	1971	Large open plaza with a large central reflecting pool at the Christian Science Center	210 Massachusetts Avenue
Ederly Road Playground	Unknown		Small public playground with a large-scale 1996 mural of the Boston Youth Fund Mural Crew on the façade of the abutting building that was inspired by jazz and Berklee College of Music across the street.	Corner of Ederly Road and Haviland Street
Evans Way Park	Fredrick Law Olmstead; Crosby Schlessinger Smallridge (2007)	~1920s- 1930s	2 1/2-acre park originally conceived as part of the Emerald Necklace. Recently renovated by Crosby Schlessinger Smallridge	244 Fenway
Forsyth Park	Unknown	~1900	Open green space next to the MFA, location of the 1937 John Endecott monument by Carl Paul Jennewein	235 Hemenway Street
Harry Ellis Dickson Park	Boston Redevelopment Authority	1991	Triangular open space home to a public art piece; Tent Bay	Between 11 and 45 Westland Avenue
Harvard Medical School, Quadrangle			Open Green Space in front of the Harvard Medical School	250 Longwood Ave
Huntington-Hemenway Mall	Unknown		Open green space with a paved walking path and a few benches by the Museum of Fine arts and Northeastern University.	Hemenway and Forsyth Corner
Joslin Park	Ellenzweig Associates, Inc	1990	Public Green Plaza in front of Joslin Diabetes Center	1 Joslin Place, Boston, MA 01225
Kenmore Square	Redesign by Pressley Associates	~1990s	This major crossroad developed as a neighborhood in the 1890s. Kenmore Square's infrastructure was renewed in the 1990s. Known as a destination for baseball at Fenway Park and a center for Boston nightlife	Intersection of Commonwealth Avenue, Beacon Street and Brookline Avenue
Museum of Fine Arts,Tenshin-en (The Garden of the Heart of Heaven)	Kinsaku Nakane	1988	Contemplative Japanese Zen garden in the Karesansui style, a "dry landscape" garden	465 Huntington Avenue
Ramlar Park	Elen Saporta	2004	Small public park intended for community programs and attraction of birds.	130 Peterborough Street
Stony Brook Sewer Easement	Unknown	~1900	Rectangular greenspace and pedestrian connector, a Boston sewer easement, located between the Fenway and Hemenway Street.	200 Hemenway Street
Symphony Community Park	Pate Adams Landscape Architects (ren. 2015)	Ren. 2015	Neighborhood park and important green space for seniors at Morville House in the East Fenway	Corner of Burbank Street and Ederly Road
Symphony Road Community Garden	Unknown	1980s	Community Garden on the site of an old aron.	82 Symphony Road
Wentworth Institute of Technology Quad	Arioch Wentworth	Ren. 2014	Wentworth's central, tree-lined campus quad offers picnic tables and seating. It serves as a connector between the main buildings and neighborhood crossing.	600 Huntington Avenue